

LTC students to participate in National HOSA Conference

Lamar Technical Center sponsors the HOSA (Health Occupation Students of America) chapter for Lamar County School District. Club organizers are Laura Fails and Mary Taylor, Allied Health Instructors for the technical center. Mrs. Fails recently accompanied students to State HOSA Competition and the following students placed:

- Lorenzo Spencer – 2nd place in Medical Terminology
- Allie Hall/ Olivia Herring – 3rd place in CPR/ First Aid
- Wendy Miller/Dallas Barber – 5th place in Community Emergency Response Team
- Nathan Burnett – 5th in Veterinary Assisting.

Pictured: left to right/front row - Katie Myers, Olivia Herring, Allie Hall, Ashley Rayborn; left to right/back row - Lorenzo Spencer, Graham Broome, Blake Austin, Nathan Burnett)

The following students qualified for participation in National HOSA Competition based on their scores on the Healthcare Issues Exam: Olivia Herring, Blake Austin, Graham Broome, Ashley Rayborn, Lorenzo Spencer, Katie Myers and Nathan Burnett. National HOSA Leadership Conference will be held this summer in Anaheim, California.